Broughty Ferry

Broughty Ferry is a bustling old fishing suburb four miles east of Dundee, easily reached by bus or just one-stop on the train from Dundee. Comprising an eclectic mix of big villas built by jute barons up the hillside and small fishermen's cottages along the shoreline, 'The Ferry', as its known, is a popular and relaxing spot with a delightful selection of independent pubs and restaurants that get particularly busy on summer evenings.

The Old Graveyard

Broughty Ferry's ancient hidden graveyard is a 'must' for visitors. Information boards on Fisher Street give details of its fascinating history, and a key is available from the nearby Ship Inn.

Independent Shops, Cafes and Bars

Broughty Ferry is a haven for independent shops, bars, and restaurants, offering a unique and diverse experience. Stroll along the bustling streets and discover a treasure trove of boutique shops, offering everything from fashion and accessories to artisan crafts and home décor.

Broughty Castle Museum

A 'must-see' attraction if you're visiting Broughty Ferry. Dating back to the 15th century, the castle stands as a magnificent example of medieval architecture. The museum houses fascinating displays on the life and times of Broughty Ferry, its people, the environment and the wildlife that live close by. The Castle has magnificent views over the river.

Broughty Ferry Beach and Waterfront

Broughty Ferry Beach and Waterfront offer a perfect blend of natural beauty and leisure activities. With its golden sands and picturesque coastline, the beach provides a tranquil escape for sunbathing, picnicking, and strolling along the shore. Walk or cycle along the promenade and along the way you will also see some unique public art.
